Read more about how and why we use your data below.

Online privacy statement

Personal data

Under the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) personal data is defined as:

“any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person”.

How we use your information

This privacy notice tells you how we, Moor Hall Primary School, will collect and use your personal data for the running of our school, and for compliance with the Local Authority and the DfE. We use services to enhance our curriculum and assist pupils with their learning, monitor behaviour, safeguard our pupils and track their achievement.

Why does do we need to collect and store personal data?

In order for us to provide an education to our pupils we need to collect personal data to:

- support our pupils' learning
- monitor and report on pupil progress
- provide appropriate pastoral care
- assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to safeguard our pupils
- to enable additional support for children and families when required
- To help manage the school budget

In any event, we are committed to ensuring that the information we collect and use is appropriate for this purpose, and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy. In terms of being contacted for marketing purposes we would contact you for additional consent.

Will Moor Hall Primary School share my personal data with anyone else?

We may pass your personal data on to third-party service providers contracted to Moor Hall Primary School in the course of dealing with you. Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service they provide you on our behalf. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with our own procedures. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal data onto a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your consent, unless we are legally required to do otherwise.

How will Moor Hall Primary School use the personal data it collects about me?

Moor Hall Primary School will process (collect, store and use) the information you provide in a manner compatible with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up-to-date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary. Moor Hall Primary School is required to retain information in accordance with the law, such as information needed for income tax and audit purposes. How long certain kinds of personal data should be kept may also be governed by specific business-sector requirements and agreed practices. Personal data may be held in addition to these periods depending on individual business needs.

Under what circumstances will Moor Hall Primary School contact me?

Our aim is not to be intrusive, and we undertake not to ask irrelevant or unnecessary questions. Moreover, the information you provide will be subject to rigorous measures and procedures to minimise the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure.

Can I find out the personal data that Moor Hall Primary School holds about me?

Moor Hall Primary School at your request, can confirm what information we hold about you and how it is processed. If Moor Hall Primary School does hold personal data about you, you can request the following information:

- Identity and the contact details of the person or organisation that has determined how and why to process your data.
